SPICEJET ||||| CSR

SpiceJet extends a helping hand for Assam flood relief

In July this year, Assam received 60 per cent more rainfall than it received in July 2015, flooding the state. This affected 1.8 million people, and flooded the Kaziranga National Park.

→ SpiceJet, in association with Anybody Can Help, a voluntary association, and Assam CM Sarbananda Sonowal's office, helped with relief efforts

→ Nearly 800 kilos of rice and dal, donated by Anybody Can Help, were ferried and distributed by SpiceJet to Jorhat

→ 1,500 packets of food supplies were donated by SpiceJet in Majuli Islands

→ 103 cartons of milk, donated by Nestlé and organised by Anybody Can Help, were ferried and distributed by SpiceJet to Jorhat

→ 42 cartons of medicines, donated by NGO The Sara - Jammu, were ferried and distributed by SpiceJet to Jorhat
